C. Write the correct information in the boxes below.

Mona Lisa’s Smile

Leonardo da Vinci started painting the Mona Lisa in 1503. It took him many years to paint this picture. The Mona Lisa is now the world’s most famous painting. What is so special about the Mona Lisa? The painting shows a young woman with a mysterious smile. After five hundred years, people still want to know what she is thinking.

The country of France keeps this painting in an art gallery called the Louvre. Because it is so famous, this painting now needs protection. In 1911, a gallery worker hid the Mona Lisa under his coat. He stole the painting and gave it to a friend. His friend copied the painting a few times. Each time, he sold the copy and called it the real Mona Lisa. This friend hid the real Mona Lisa in a box. He kept it there for two years. Then, when he tried to sell the painting, the police caught him. The Mona Lisa soon went back to the gallery.

There are some funny tributes to the Mona Lisa. These tributes make the Mona Lisa even more famous. An artist from Japan made a Mona Lisa from pieces of burned toast. Also, a Lego fan used over thirty thousand Lego blocks to create Mona Lego. What would Leonardo da Vinci think of that?

- a. False copies of the painting were made by the thief’s friend.
- b. An artist in Japan made a tribute to Mona Lisa.
- c. The painting was stolen in 1911.
- d. Someone tried to sell the painting.
